World Compliance PEP List

CONTENT-SUMMARY:

World Compliance provides a comprehensive database of "Politically Exposed Persons" (PEPs), their family members and close associates.

A global PEP database covers more than 240 countries, faces different languages, needs to be maintained constantly and consequently contains a lot of data. WorldCompliance has built such a database, containing more than 420,000 profiles of Politically Exposed Persons, their family members and close associates, and maintains this data on a real time basis. Seven research centers on four continents permanently research for content, averaging more than 25,000 new profiles and more than 5,000 updated profiles a month.

As a leading provider for information on PEPs WorldCompliance even offers portrait photographs as a fully integrated feature of the profile where available.

UK Cases, Combined Courts

COVERAGE: From 1558 through current

- All England Law Reports Reprints from 1558 (when available)
- ICLR Law Reports from 1865
- All England Law Reports from 1936 and other law reports from 1945
- Scottish reported cases from 1982
- Northern Ireland cases from 1945
- Unreported cases from England & Wales
- Scotland and Northern Ireland from 1980

ENGLAND & WALES

The All England Law Reports Reprint comprises approximately 6,000 cases from 1558-1935. When the selection was made for the publication of this series, cases were chosen which were considered to remain relevant, the general rule being the inclusion of cases which had been referred to twice or more in the All England Law Reports since 1936. In all cases a new headnote was written and the case put into the All England Law Reports format. In addition a list of cases in which the reported case was known to be subsequently considered is included in the report.

In addition, we now offer The All England Reprint Extensions (© LexisNexis Australia), a companion to The All England Reprints containing 1,509 further important cases with headnotes and judgments for the period 1861 until 1935 when The All England Law Reports began. This series complements The All England Reprint Series and The All England Law Reports.

This file contains the full text of over 200,000 reported and unreported cases from England and Wales. Coverage includes decisions from over 30 series of law reports including the principal series: All England Law Reports Reprints from 1558, the ICLR Law Reports from 1865 and All England Law Reports from 1936. Many important specialised reports such as the Estates Gazette, Family Law and the Industrial Relations Law Reports are also included. Some of these reports contain decisions of note from Scotland, Northern Ireland and the European Union.

Unreported cases are available in full, starting from January 1980, and include official transcripts of all unreported cases from the House of Lords, Privy Council, Court of Appeal (Civil Division) and unreported cases from the Administrative Court (formerly Queen's Bench Division (Crown Office List)) are available from 1983. Digests (case summaries) and Approved Judgments of the High Court are also put up on a daily basis, with the addition of the official transcript or law report where available. The creation of up to 3 versions of a case provides greater variety and choice.

Selected unreported decisions, based on their relevance and importance, are provided from the Employment Appeal Tribunal, Queen's Bench Division (Admiralty Court), Chancery Division (Patents Court), Queen's Bench Commercial Cases, VAT Tribunal up to 1994, Lands Tribunal up to 1993 and High Court as monitored in various LexisNexis online services, journals, law reports and newspapers (including The Times).

Also included are practice notes or directions which are generally brief statements about judicial procedure in a specific court or administrative procedure for a specific case; e.g. Practice Note (Structured Settlements: Court's Approval).

Scotland

Decisions from Scottish courts as reported in the following series: Session Cases, Scottish Criminal Case Reports and Scottish Civil Law Reports. Coverage includes decisions from the Court of Session, High Court of Justiciary, Sheriff Court and the House of Lords in London, among others.
Session Cases from 1930.

Scottish Criminal Case Reports (SCCR) from January 1981;

Scottish Civil Law Reports (SCLR) from February 1986.

All unreported cases from the following courts are provided. Catchwords for most unreported cases are supplied by the Advocates Library:

* House of Lords decisions from July 1986

* Inner House decisions from January 1982

* Outer House from January 1985

In addition, selected Employment Appeal Tribunal Cases (Scotland) are available from January 1992.

The supreme civil court, the Court of Session, is divided into two branches. The Outer House hears civil cases of first instance. The Inner House, itself divided into two divisions, reviews the decisions of the Outer House and other inferior courts. Appeals from the Court of Session lie to the House of Lords in London. The High Court of Justiciary is Scotland's supreme criminal court. The Sheriff Court deals with less serious offences. Scotland is divided into six sheriffdoms, each of which has a Sheriff-Principal and a number of Sheriffs.

Other tribunals and courts of special jurisdiction include: the Employment Appeal Tribunal, Land Valuation Court, Scottish Land Court, Land Tribunal for Scotland, and Court of Lord Lyon (heraldry - disputes as to the right to bear coats of arms).

Northern Ireland

Reported cases from January 1945; unreported cases from March 1984. Decisions from Northern Ireland courts reported in the official series, the Northern Ireland Law Reports. Coverage includes decisions from the Court of Appeal in Belfast, the High Court of Justice, the House of Lords in London and selected criminal cases from the Crown Court.

Unreported judgments, selected for their relevance and importance, are included when available.

International Court of Justice Decisions, Combined

SUMMARY:

The International Court of Justice Decisions, Combined (ALLICJ) group file contains the full-text, English-language judgments and advisory opinions of the International Court of Justice from 1948, and application, written pleadings and orders from pending cases filed in 2004 forward. Coverage begins in 1948 with The Corfu Channel Island cases and includes those full-text judgments and advisory opinions made available to LexisNexis by permission of the Court. Where applicable, links are provided to full-text U.S. and Canadian cases cited in the judgment.

The International Court of Justice, sometimes called the "World Court," is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations. Its seat is at the Peace Palace in The Hague (Netherlands). It began work in 1946, when it replaced the Permanent Court of International Justice which had functioned in the Peace Palace since 1922. It operates under a Statute largely similar to that of its predecessor, which is an integral part of the Charter of the United Nations.

The Court has a dual role: to settle in accordance with international law the legal disputes submitted to it by States, and to give advisory opinions on legal questions referred to it by duly authorized international organs and agencies. In July 1993 the Court also established a seven-member Chamber to deal with any environmental cases falling within its jurisdiction.

Judgments are final and without appeal. Since 1946 the Court has delivered 89 Judgments on disputes concerning inter alia land frontiers and maritime boundaries, territorial sovereignty, the non-use of force, non-interference in the internal affairs of States, diplomatic relations, hostage-taking, the right of asylum, nationality, guardianship, rights of passage and economic rights.

Since 1946 the Court has given 25 Advisory Opinions, concerning inter alia the legal consequences of the construction of a wall in the occupied Palestinian territory, admission to United Nations membership, reparation for injuries suffered in the service of the United Nations, territorial status of South-West Africa (Namibia) and Western Sahara, judgments rendered by international administrative tribunals, expenses of certain United Nations operations, applicability of the United Nations Headquarters Agreement, the status of human rights rapporteurs, and the legality of the threat or use of nuclear weapons.

As the Court has two official languages (English and French) everything written or said in one language is translated into the other.

Documents will display in reverse chronological order by date of decision.
