Enjoy better media intelligence, faster, with  Nexis+™ with Protégé™

Nexis+™ with Protégé™ accelerates news research by combining LexisNexis Protégé™ AI with the industry's largest collection of news data approved by publishers for genAI use.* LexisNexis Protégé empowers you and your teams to:

Kickstart Your Research

Get smart fast on breaking stories, headline-generating trends and more by asking conversational questions that generate cited answers you can transform into rich, customized reports.

Extract Insight

Quickly expand your understanding of a topic, company or trend. Summarize long documents and news articles sourced from a vast library of global content.

Tap Into Trusted Sources

Get unique research insights using licensed LexisNexis news, legal and company financial data, or expand your sources to include the open web.

Organize Research

Keep projects on track with ease. Save insights and their source metadata with a couple of clicks, before reviewing your collected research from a single hub of cloud-stored data.

Generate Reports

Never start a report from a blank page again. Generate first drafts that are easy to verify and edit, using only your curated selection of licensed sources.
